What a fabulous week! The movie night was a huge success and felt like a real cinema experience with multiple screens, tickets and popcorn. Thank you to our HSA for sorting out the popcorn and to all our teachers and staff members who stayed to support the event.

Earlier this week we were lucky to be visited by local author, J. J. Valente. She met with our reading ambassadors to share some of her new book "Chocolate Toothpaste." She spoke to them about the process of writing, developing illustrations and publishing a book; and very kindly donated some copies of her book to the school. The children loved learning about the process of writing and hearing extracts of the book.

Next week, we'll be continuing to focus on reading with the next round of Carl's Book's coming home on Tuesday. Please keep an eye out for these in book bags, ensure they are looked after and returned to school once your child has finished reading it so they can be ticked off.

Then on Thursday it's World Book Day. We look forward to seeing our children's dressed as a character from their favourite book, or in their pyjamas ready to snuggle up with a good book. Don't forget they will still need to wear sensible shoes for outside play with their costume or pyjamas—no slippers please. During the day we are looking forward to a visit from our reading patron Stephanie Clarkson, a range of literary activities and a book swap. If your child would like to bring a book in to school they can exchange this during our book swap. Please ensure any books you do not wish to be exchanged are not brought in on this day to avoid any mishaps.

Next Friday we're looking forward to welcoming EYFS parents for our open session; and Year 1 and 2 parents for our first aid workshop—please do ensure you've signed up via forms if you would like to attend.

Finally, with pancake day next Tuesday we're starting to look towards Easter and our traditional Easter Egg Bingo. We will be starting to collect Easter Eggs from next week and any donations will be gratefully received to the school office or class teacher.

As ever, have a wonderful weekend and we look forward to welcoming everyone back for what promises to be an action packed week!
